

Local stations have no more right to the airwaves than Satellite Radio. The airwaves are the property of the US Citizen, not the stations or the NAB. What matters most is the people and access to information needed by citizens in the interests of public safety, not protecting monopoly access to the public.

Businesses all talk about free enterprise but then they want special protections from competition when they feel threatened!

Say NO to the NAB!